O Church-ville High, The Sons and Daugh-ters e-ver Will sing thy praise in ac-cent's fond and We pledge to thee that in the years be-fore us That come what-may, thine hon-or we'll not true. Thy friend-ly walls and green clad fields sur-round-ing Will cher-ish stain; Thy banner fair we'll carry al-ways fore-ward, Not let it be in all our thoughts of you. And friend-ships' bonds we've forged in smiles and dip through thought-less-ness or pain. And when at last there comes the time to tears. The joys we've had, the tri-umphs, the de-feat Will each one

WE PRESENT

The staff of THE CREST of nineteen forty-four have tried to portray your school life so that in future years you will be able to recall the happy moments spent at Churchville High.

We hope that each group picture and each informal snapshot will hold a special meaning for you. Whether it shows you as a self-conscious, scared freshman or an upperclassman, we hope you will enjoy it.

May this second edition of THE CREST symbolize the friendly dignity and quiet charm of your Alma Mater.

THE CREST of nineteen forty-four is dedicated to the man who has guided our class all the way through the four years of high school. As he started his career at Churchville High School when we were freshmen, we feel honored to be, in a sense, his first graduating class.

It is with deep pleasure and pride that we dedicate THE CREST to our principal, Mr. Olmsted, who has shown untiring interest in our class. We appreciate his diligence in helping each of us and in striving to make Churchville High not just better, but best.

WE HONOR

MRS. JOHN MALLOCH

To Mrs. Malloch we dedicate this space in THE CREST of 1944. It is very small, indeed, in comparison with the work she has done so untiringly for several years. Whenever someone was needed in any department of the school, Mrs. Malloch has always been there with a ready smile and a willing heart. No job has been too large for her to undertake; and we might add that she has handled them all with competence.

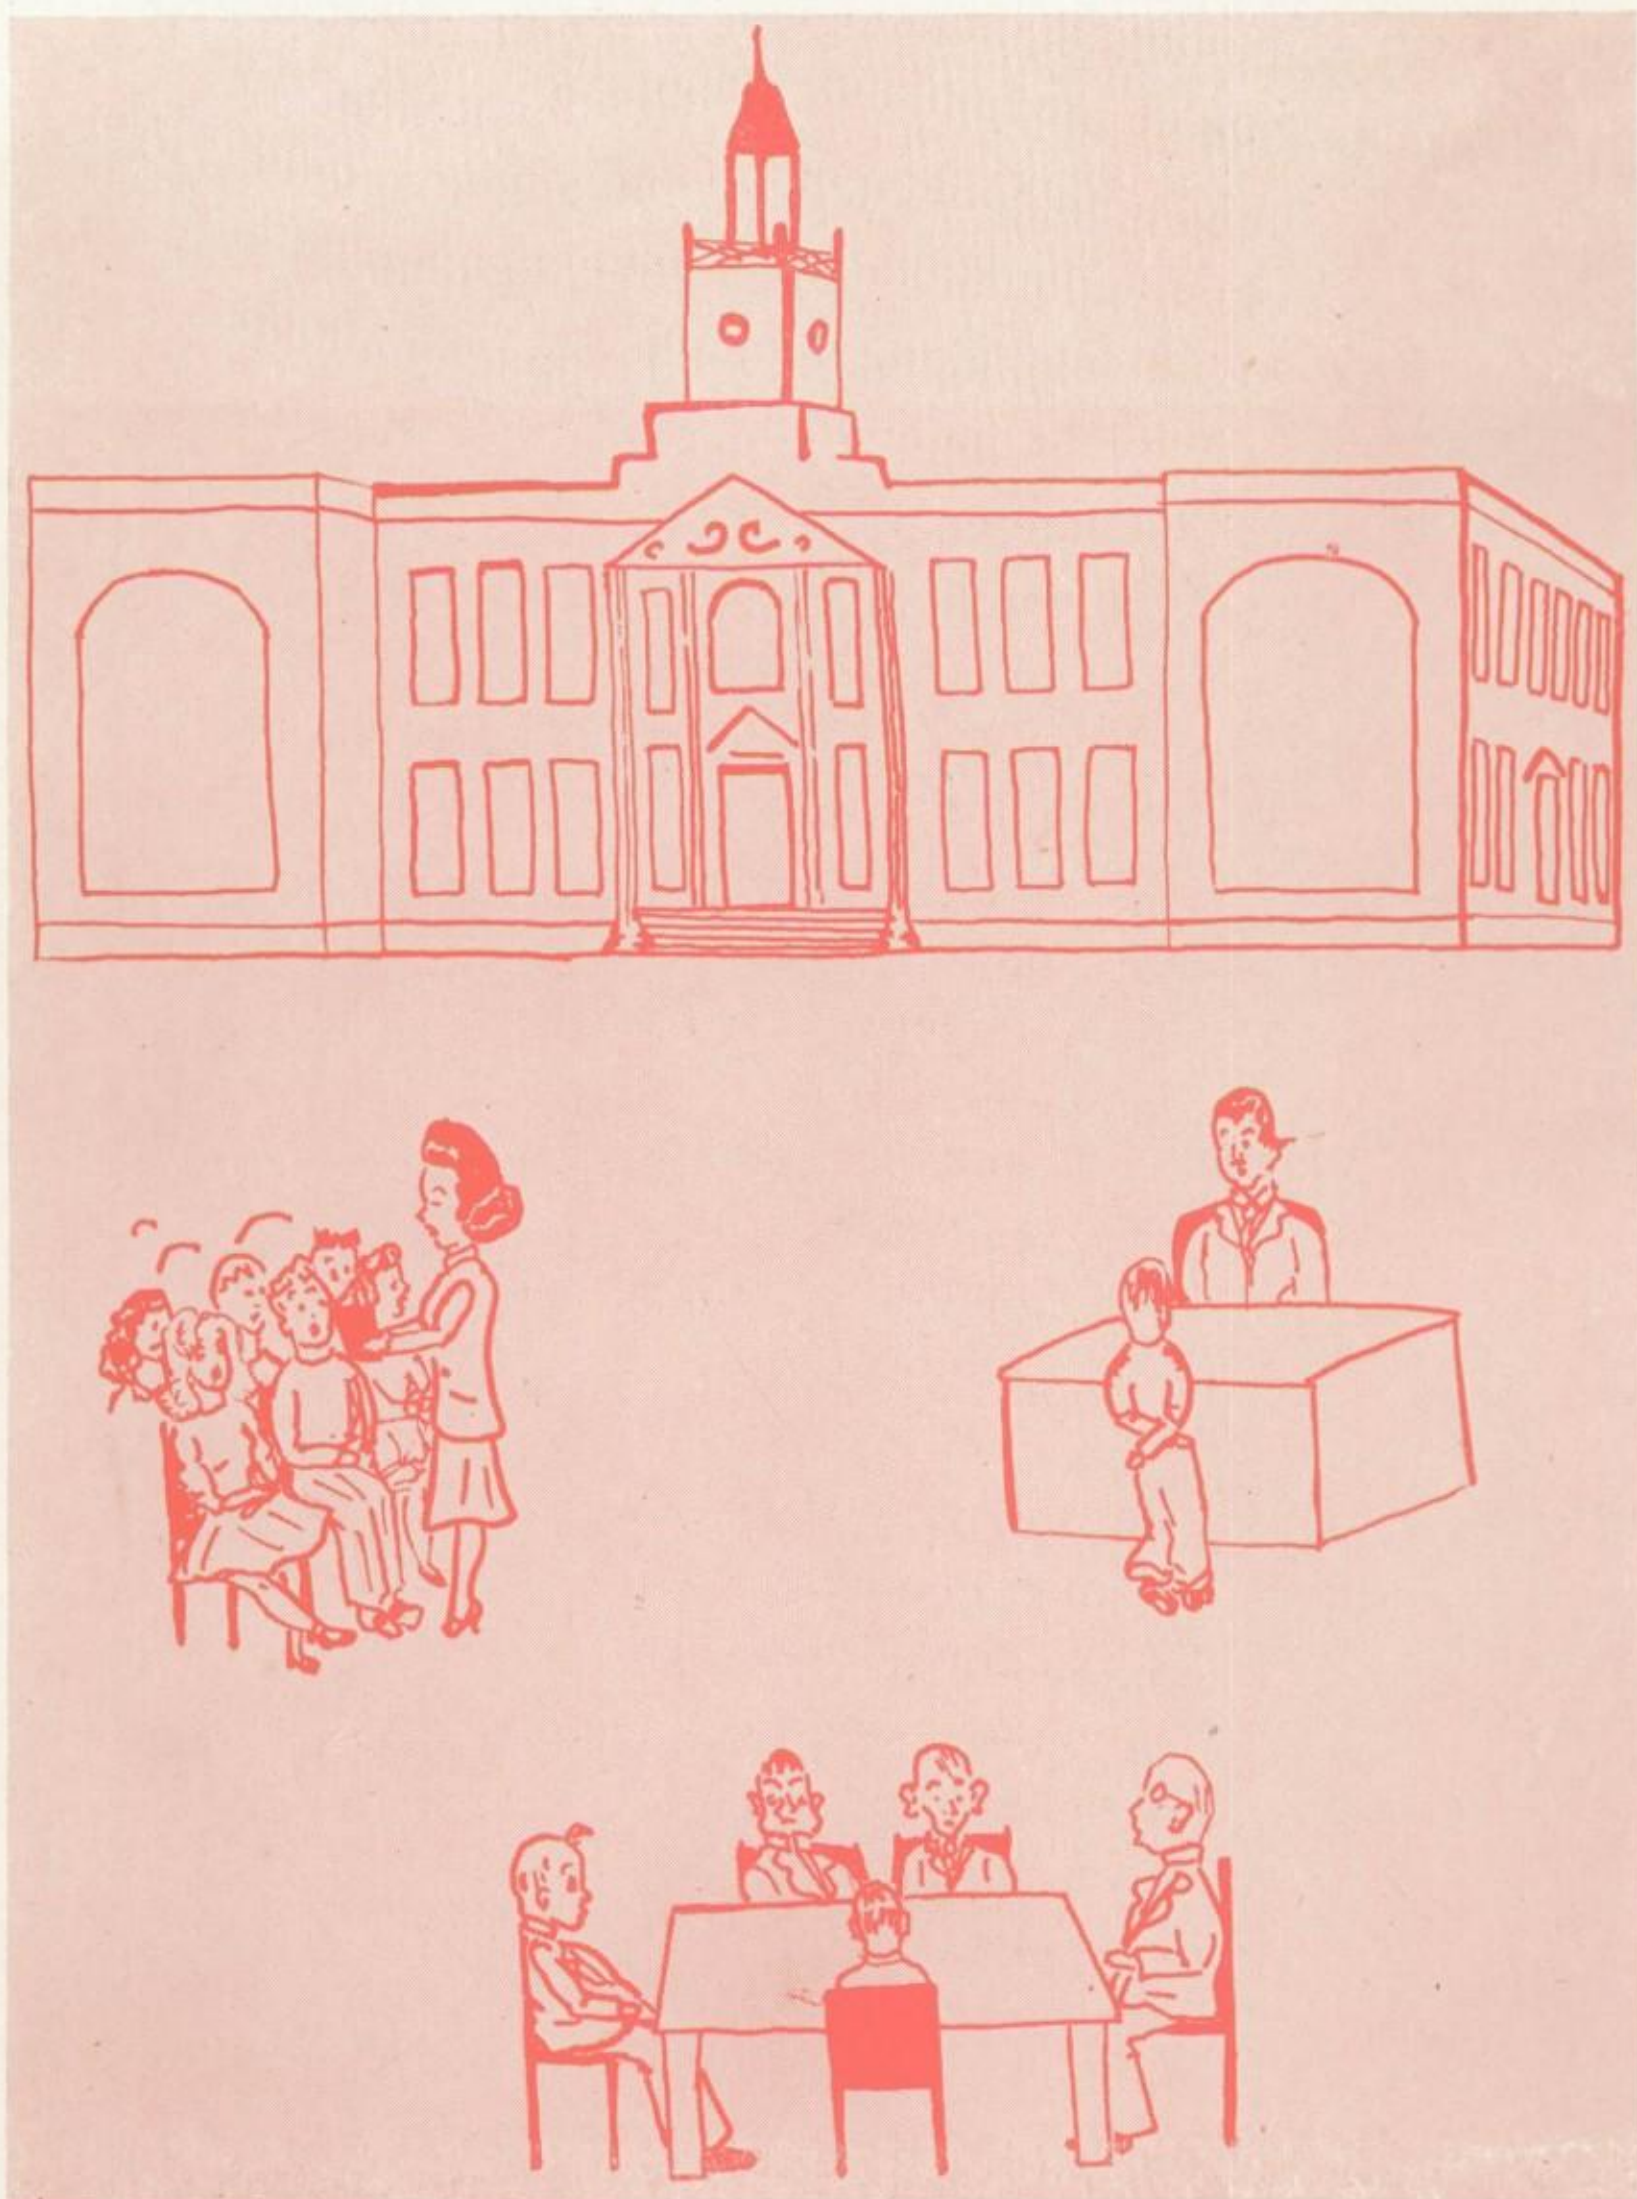

Mrs. Malloch, we salute you for your many years of service to Churchville High School.

To Miss Redfern we also dedicate a portion of this page. For many years Miss Redfern has been the teacher and friend of the young people of Churchville. Not demonstratively, but quietly, she has guided many children through their grades with an assured hand. In the minds of many of us, Miss Redfern represents friendliness, wisdom, and steadfastness. Miss Redfern, we are grateful to you too.

MISS PEARL REDFERN

ADMINISTRATION

To the Board of Education we owe much gratitude for the wonderful opportunity of a liberal education. The Board has spent much time in supervising the work of the school so that it would be both profitable and enjoyable. We thank them for the chance to learn, to play, to improve.

OUR ADVISER

When our Senior Class leaves Churchville, there will be a lingering thought of a person who has done much for us. This is our class adviser, Mrs. Mahony.

Her cheerful manner has given us a very enjoyable homeroom. The long hours that she spent in directing our Senior Play made it a success. We appreciate her careful guidance in all that we have set out to do.

MEMORIES

In the fall of 1940,
Upon Churchville's hallowed ground,
A flock of green-horned freshmen
Started senior-bound.
Bill Dietel was our president;
Janis Woodams followed him;
Jane Burson's time to business went;
Money took C. Glidden's vim.
As freshmen we were not so brisk,
But we soon started catching up:
A skating party made us frisk;
With roasted hots our class did sup.

Next came our sophomore year;
Oh, tragic for us all!
Our classmates started leaving
To meet their country's call.
Doc DePalma led the rest;
J. Woodams again was second.
Jane as clerk now met the test;
K. Griffin our money reckoned.
So on and on we sought
To reach our school's perfection.
Geometry seemed naught
But a sugary confection!

Our junior year did find us
With half a class or so.
Then four or five more "brighties"
With '43 did go.
Our leader, Charlie Glidden,
The Navy called on deck.
Bob Griffiths then replaced him,
And Jame became our "sec."
With Lois as assistant "prez,"
And Zetta as cashier,
A prom was held without Lopez,
The tops of any year.

Our senior year was led by Bob,
With Lois coming next in line.
Althea got the treas'rer's job;
And Mary's records sure looked fine.

And so, among them all,
Marriage, jobs, war, and such,
What once were forty all,
Are just eleven seniors—not much.
"Not much," you say! Why listen,
Where is the class before?
We gave so much to it,
To this, and that, and war.
We had our Senior Play,
Quite a thing at that.
We had a lovely dance,
For good old Saint Pat.

We could dwell on many things
That we seniors have done;
But why should we say more
Than—

WE'RE THE CLASS OF '44!

PRE-VUES

This year's Senior Class is the smallest in the history of Churchville. It totals the lofty sum of eleven "fair ladies" and "brave sirs." We shall now endeavor to foretell the future of these inspiring young people.

—MARY HELEN CODY and JANET DUNNING

Here we have Miss Jane Burson, for whom we predict a brilliant future as a needle in a sewing machine—because she's so sharp! We know from a reliable source that she will go a long way with the Singer Sewing Machine Company.

Next on our list is Patrolman Calkins, for whom we foresee a delightful future as chief detective for the Harris Seed Company. It will be his job to plant a guard, which will take root in Coldwater and keep the Harris firm from going to seed.

Step to the right, ladies. Here comes Lorenzo "Doc" De Palma. For him we predict the business world. He will manufacture locks of hair (with glue included) so more men can pattern their lives after Frank Sinatra. As an avocation, he'll croon.

The next fair lady is Lois Gould. For her we predict (to keep in shape) a riveting job at Lockheed. She will make the "thing-a-ma-bob" for the "watch-chama-call-it" in the "struzelbaum."

After Lois we naturally find Bob Griffiths. You know what he's going to do? Invent mustache cups. In the near future he'll open a factory. "Don't forget," says Bob, "they'll come in assorted sizes and colors."

Then comes Stanley Z. (Dapper Stan) Johnson. We predict for him a fine career as head buyer of men's wear for Sibley, Lindsay, and Curr Company. In his spare time, he will edit the "Messquire," a magazine for the well-dressed young man.

And now that versatile little character, Althea Morey. She's one of those few people who know enough to come in out of the rain. She will definitely add many new amendments to the Constitution.

For Zetta Silver, the little housewife, we see a darling cottage complete with shutters, picket fence, and children, or perhaps she'll be matron of a girls' prison. She can be rather stern, you know.

And next, Ruth Smith, who will have a brilliant future as Assistant Manager of Fairview Farms, Waverly, New York. The manager you will remember as a former Churchville boy.

Make way for Miss Mary "Spick and Span" Staines. She is headed for a grand future as head of Hustle-Bustle-Sweep-Em-Clean Broom Company. Mary Eleanor is known for her neatness, you know.

And last, but by no means least, is Paul "Barber Pole" Stein, better known as Romeo. We predict for Romeo a Juliet. Together they will go to Hollywood and who knows, maybe they'll be a second Clark Gable and Marjorie Main!

The Class of 1945 has had more than its share of excitement in the past eleven years. It has acquired a reputation for being unusual—in more ways than one!

The class has had the usual number of school picnics, parties, and dances. Our informal dance after the January exams this year will remain in our memory for some time to come.

Last year several of the Junior girls attempted to launch a sorority. It caught on at first, but soon died out. The Junior girls seem to support the Library Club, while the boys stick to the F. F. A. In the class there is a clique of boys who could appropriately be called “mathematical geniuses.” They started amazing the world in elementary algebra and have continued through to trig. The Class of 1945 boasts several singers, a few instrumentalists, and more than a necessary amount of eraser-throwers.

But despite all this, they really are a good class. They like their teachers and their school. They mean well; you just have to bear with them.

Last year was quiet for the freshmen. It was hard to become acquainted with the other forty-four members of the class, many of whom came to Churchville High from other schools. The officers were as follows: President, Lois Mason; Vice-President, Richard Tennity; Secretary, Gloria Mynott; Treasurer, Vincent Woityra. The Student Forum representatives were John Marcello and Lois Mason.

Although our only party was held on a rainy night in November, it was much fun. Miss Dixon, who is now a WAC, chaperoned the group. The social studies class had a hay ride later in the year.

There have been two outstanding events in our sophomore year. First came the tea dance on St. Valentine's Day. Then there was the hay ride, with much singing and merry-making. After the ride everyone stuffed himself with hots and milk before a rip-roaring fire at the park pavilion.

We are particularly proud of the fact that several members of this year's basketball team and several cheerleaders have come from the Sophomore Class.

In 1935 a group of children started school; some came to Churchville High, while some went to small rural schools in surrounding districts.

1944 finds these same pupils now all together, freshmen of Churchville High. Their faces have changed, but the desire to graduate still continues. In November of 1943 the freshmen held a harvest dance. This was considered a good accomplishment. When the old year faded out and the new year came rolling in, this class had a hay ride, skating party, and class dance all combined. Miss Rusk and Miss Mason served as chaperons. On February 21 the Freshman Class staged a Leap Year Box Social Dance, which served as entertainment for the whole community.

The Class of '47 has started out putting work plus play together and making it equal success. They hope that their four years together will equal prosperity.

ACTIVITIES

What were the seniors doing behind that closed door of the library workroom? Why did Miss Clark and Mr. Taylor seem so busily preoccupied? What was happening?

We saw Lois Gould flying around taking snapshots whenever she could find a victim. Althea Morey was laboring over drawings, her hands inky with the effort. Lorenzo DePalma was chasing here and there with Mr. Taylor; and yet we couldn't find out what was taking place.

Finally it came to us. The yearbook, of course! We then did a little probing and found out that Lois Gould is Editor-in-Chief; no wonder she was so busy! Robert Griffiths, we found, is Sports Editor; Mary Eleanor Staines, Literary Editor; Lorenzo DePalma, Advertising Manager. The Art Editor is Althea Morey. That solved the mystery of the drawings. Ruth Smith is Business Manager, with Zetta Silver as Typing Manager. Miss Clark and Mr. Taylor are the advisers—hence their busy attitude.

After we had found all this, we settled down again, quite content to let them labor away; and after all the work is done, we'll step up and say, "One copy, please!"

THE 1944 CREST STAFF

MISS CLARK

MR. TAYLOR

CHEERLEADERS

No competitive sport is supplied for the girls of Churchville High School nowadays; therefore all the girls are interested in cheerleading. Of the large number who tried out in the fall, twelve were chosen to cheer the teams to victory.

The girls wore the traditional black and orange uniforms. Although the yells were mostly of the "snappy" type, a few slow ones were added for contrast. Some acrobatics and flag drills increased the effectiveness of the cheers.

We salute these lively girls and their adviser, Mr. Olmsted.

TEAM MANAGERS

The basketball and soccer teams this year have been managed by Lorenzo DePalma, while Richard Haller has looked after the baseball team.

Even though these fellows do not play on the team, they are as much a part of it as any one of the players. It is their duty to check uniforms, keep the records, take care of the equipment, and in general be Coach's right-hand men.

To these boys who so quietly help, without a thought for praise, we offer our congratulations.

Mr. Olmsted, Lorenzo DePalma, Richard Haller, Coach Smith.

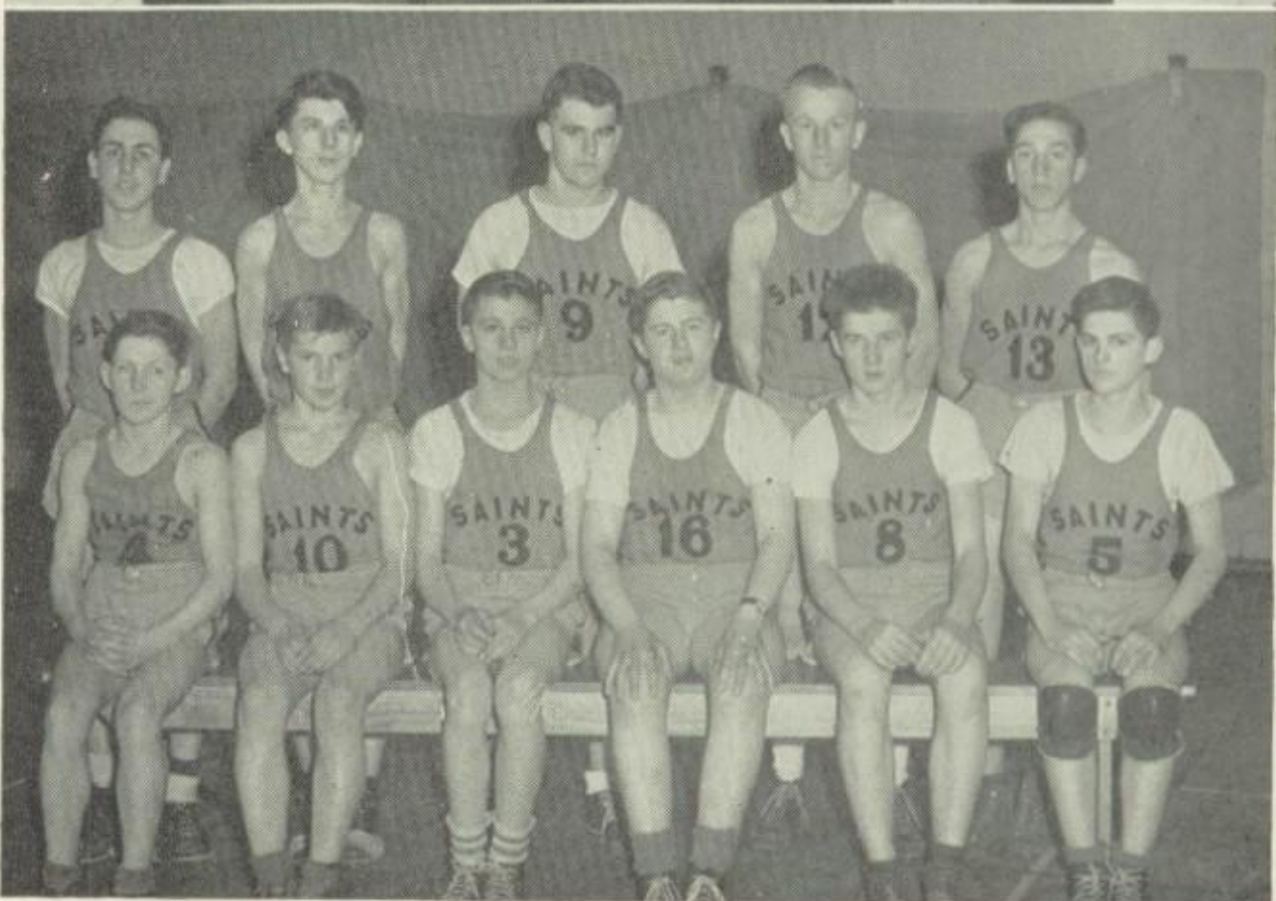

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL CAPTAINS

During the winter, the gym was the center of noon-hour activity. Feeling ran high as intramural basketball teams battled it out for the showdown. Coach Smith had chosen captains, who selected different teams from week to week.

The eager shouts of players blended with excited cheers and instructions from bystanders. Never did a half hour fly more quickly.

For their good sportsmanship and love of a clean game, we offer a word of praise to the Intramural Captains.

STANDING: Marcello, Boughner, DuVal, Jacobs, Calkins. SEATED: Mooney, Lathrop, Frew, Weidert, Hutchings, Griffiths.

SOCCER TEAM

When the soccer team started last fall, there was only one experienced player, Captain Robert Griffiths; all the rest had graduated. Did this stop the team? No! They plunged ahead under Coach Smith's untiring guidance to become champions of the B League for the fifth consecutive year.

To their long hours of practice in the raw air, their co-operative teamwork, and their fighting spirit, Churchville High School points with pride!

Although the baseball team has lost six regulars through graduation, we expect this year's team to be as good as last year's. This is saying a great deal, as last year's team was undefeated!

We have two varsity men on our team to start it off—Captain Robert Griffiths, who plays second base, and Jerry Betteridge, our shortstop.

Other experienced men expected to make the team are Donald Calkins, catcher; Dick Burson, first base; Jack Brew and Burt Beaman, pitchers; Kenneth James, outfield.

GIRLS' CHORUS

Last year we lost many of our members through graduation. Mr. Taylor is doing a good job in training a great many younger girls to take their places, however. Certain members of the Girls' Chorus comprise a Girls' Ensemble which sings choral classics and semi-classics.

Our Mixed Chorus has done wonderful work this year under the able direction of Mr. Gordon Taylor. Always before we have been able to go to state contests and festivals, but now because of the war, these have been discontinued. The work for the Spring Festival has been a satisfactory substitute, however.

The officers are:

KENNETH JAMES . President MARIAN STILES . Vice-President SHIRLEY VAIL . Secretary

MIXED CHORUS

JUNIOR CHORUS

Our youngest musical organization, the Junior Chorus, is composed of the members of the seventh and eighth grades. The primary function of this organization is to teach these pre-high school students the art of choral singing. Mr. Taylor has had great success with them, as shown by their active part in the Spring Festival.

The officers are:

HERBERT SASSENHAUSEN President DONNA THOMPSON Vice-President SHIRLEY MITCHELL Secretary

BACK ROW: S. Gruendike, Miller, Euler, Raymond Kohlman, Heffer, N. Gruendike, Ashe, Young, Derby, Van Ostrand. Our dance orchestra, under the conscientious supervision of Prof. Taylor, is really in the groove this year. All of the latest music has been secured. After numerous rehearsals, the band members were able to convert the noises from their various instruments into harmonious music.

Our dance band plays for noon-hour dancing at school, for dancing after basketball games, and at various social functions. The members of the swing orchestra are:

HARRIET WAY	Trumpet	ALTHEA MOREY	Tenor Saxophone
JOHN NICKELS	Trumpet	ELLA MAY WIDGER	Trombone
SHIRLEY VAIL	Alto Saxophone, Clarinet	HELEN EMBLING	Trombone
FLORENCE TROST	Alto Saxophone, Clarinet	LORENZO DEPALMA	Drums
	CHLOE HOPSON	Piano

JAZZ BAND

BAND

Under the capable leadership of Mr. Taylor, our school band, though slightly decreased by last year's graduation, is quickly picking up. With more students realizing their musical ability, the horn section has increased considerably; the clarinet and trumpet sections are still holding their own.

During the basketball season, the band provided the musical entertainment. In the spring, the band, with the other musical organizations of the school, sponsored a music festival. Their performance consisted of lovely marches, overtures, and other selections.

The officers are:

ELLA MAY WIDGER . President SHIRLEY VAIL . Vice-President VIVIAN HILL . Secretary

The orchestra has furnished entertainment for the Senior Play, assemblies, the annual Spring Festival, and the graduation exercises.

The orchestra is very grateful to Mr. Gordon Taylor, for the organization has developed swiftly under his able supervision.

SENIOR PLAY CAST

"What Wright Left" showed the troubles of a young bridegroom (Bob Griffiths) who fell heir to his uncle's prize possession. In the humorous plot, "Doc" DePalma was the high-pressure publicity man; Althea Morey, the "dumb" maid; Lois Gould, the bride; Mary Eleanor Staines, the meddlesome old maid. Zetta Silver portrayed the shrewish mother-in-law; Ruth Smith, the glamour girl; Paul Stein, the thief; Don Calkins, the Irish "cop;" Stan Johnson, the bridegroom's friend; Jane Burson, a sweet young thing, and Sally Brice-land, a secretary. "What Wright Left" turned out to be a beautiful cat!

In past years the school has always had a newspaper called The Progressus. This year we decided to have a magazine instead. After much chewing of pencils, wracking of brains, and typing of stencils, The Inkpot resulted. The first edition contained thumb-nail sketches of the teachers and custodians of the school, poems, a short story, essays, and jokes. The staff is composed of the following people:

S. JOHNSON	Editor-in-Chief	L. DEPALMA	Business Manager
M. H. CODY	Literary Editor	D. BOUGHNER	Circulation Manager
A. MOREY	Features Editor	Z. SILVER	Chief Typist
J. DUNNING	Art Editor	J. BURSON, H. CUNDIFF, W. STEVENS	Assistants
C. HOPSON	Assistant	MISS CLARK, MISS WALKER	Advisers

MAGAZINE CLUB

F. F. A.

It would be hard to find a more enthusiastic group than the F. F. A. of Churchville High. This year the boys staged an Achievement Day, with exhibits of animals, produce, and even tractors! Then came a card party, with prizes galore. Another success was the Fathers' and Sons' Banquet, complete with good food, speeches, and just plain talk. The initiation of twelve new members was another event which won't be forgotten!

Besides these social activities, the boys made very substantial earnings from their farm projects. If our future farmers are all as capable as these fellows, we will not need to worry about the "backbone of the nation."

BOYS' 4-H CLUB

The boys of the 4-H Club have learned a great deal about the care and repair of farm tools. With farm labor so scarce, these fellows have been doing a really important job by helping to keep their parents' farms running. Under the efficient direction of Mr. Buckley, they have been learning the meaning of economy and resourcefulness.

GIRLS' 4-H CLUB

The Girls' 4-H Club selected cooking as their first-term project. Besides planning several war-time meals, they learned how to preserve the produce from last year's Victory gardens.

During the second term they have been busy with pins, yardsticks, and thimbles. For the Red Cross, they made skirts for needy children. Scrapbooks for the hospitals were also completed. Besides making aprons and towels, they have resurrected old furniture. It's amazing what they can do with flounces and fresh paint!

STUDENT FORUM

Our Student Forum, an experiment started last year, is progressing slowly but surely. Its aim is to give the students and teachers a better chance to talk over the problems which arise. Its roots have taken hold, and in a few years it will become a fine evidence of American democracy in action.

STANDING: D. Burson, Liese, Embling, DePalma, Morse, Malinowski. SEATED: Sanders, Manle, Beaman, Morey, J. Burson, Griffiths, Baler.

The Music Council is one of the most important innovations brought to the Churchville High School Music Department by Mr. Taylor. Composed of the officers of the various musical organizations, this group acts as co-ordinator of them all.

We are proud of the expansion of this department. More and more pupils are finding relief and real enjoyment by turning to music. For the increased interest in this important subject, we thank Mr. Taylor and the Music Council.
